Building APMG Certified PPP Professionals to tackle infrastructure challenges

What is the APMG PPP Certification Program?

- The APMG PPP Certification Program is an innovation of the Asian Development Bank (ADB), the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development (EBRD), the Inter-american Development Bank (IDB), the Islamic Development Bank (IsDB), the Multilateral Investment Fund (MIF) and the World Bank Group (WBG) and part funded by the Public-Private Infrastructure advisory Facility (PPIAF) with a shared vision of enhancing PPP performance globally.
- CP³P is the definitive credential to demonstrate to your peers that your abilities are aligned with international PPP good practice.

Certification Program Structure

There are plenty of free resources and supporting materials to help you study:

- The PPP Guide, freely downloadable from the www.ppp-certification.com website.
- Freely available Computer Based Training module for the Foundation exam.
- Sample exam papers are available following registration.
- Candidate guidance documents for the two higher level exams is available.
- Three exams, based on the PPP Guide - one Foundation level and two at Practitioner level. Foundation is mandatory before proceeding to the higher levels.
- Training is available via a global network of Accredited Training Organizations (ATOs) – listed on the www.ppp-certification.com website.

Candidates who complete all three exams are awarded the globally recognised CP³P credential which is endorsed by the Consultative Committee.

Exams and Certificates

- APMG's Certification Program comprises three exams; a Foundation exam and two Practitioner level exams with our Foundation exam a pre-requisite for the higher level exams. Successful candidates for each exam will be awarded a certificate and a digital badge.
- Candidates can take one or both of the Practitioner exams in any order, however taking the Preparation exam before the Execution exam follows the lifecycle of a PPP. Candidates who have passed all three exams will be entitled to use the CP³P credential. The diagram below explains the exams pathway to becoming a Certified Public-Private Partnerships Professional.

Who is the audience for the Certification Program and what background is needed?

The audience for the Certification Program includes individuals working on PPPs or those interested in learning about PPPs, regardless of discipline or sector.

Anyone can apply to take the exams leading to gaining the CP³P credential. Some previous knowledge or experience in the topics covered in the PPP Guide will be advantageous, but lack of experience should not prevent anyone from taking part.

CP³P is the definitive credential for demonstrating your grasp on PPP good practice and the ability to deliver PPPs to a high standard.

Level	Description	Certificate
Foundation	The Foundation certification is aimed at individuals who are involved in PPP projects and require a working knowledge of the key principles of financing PPP projects. The Foundation exam tests whether a candidate has sufficient knowledge and understanding of chapter 1 of the PPP Guide to act as an informed team member of a PPP finance project.
Preparation	The Preparation exam tests whether the candidate has achieved sufficient understanding of how to apply and tailor PPP Frameworks and PPP Project Identification, Screening, Appraisal and Preparation Processes in a given governmental context.
Execution	The Execution exam tests whether the candidate has achieved sufficient understanding of how to apply the structuring and drafting process of PPP tender documents and the PPP contracts, as well as the management of PPP contracts during the Construction and Operations Phases.
All	Candidates who sit all three exams and complete them successfully are awarded the CP ³ P credential.

Frequently Asked Questions

How long will the Foundation level take?

Whilst individuals study at their own pace, it is anticipated that the Foundation exam will require approximately 7 hours of reading time and 20 hours of study.

If you are attending an accredited training course, this will be delivered over 2-3 days.

Can I self-study?

Yes, the examinations are based on the PPP Guide which is available online as a free download. A free Computer Based Training course for Foundation is available on our website.

How can I get access to training centers?

APMG has Accredited Training Organisations (ATOs) or affiliates in most countries in the EMDE countries. These ATOs provide training and a place to take the exam. Details of the ATOs are listed on our website: <https://apmg-international/.com/all-atos>

Does the exam have an expiry date?

No, there is no renewal requirement.

How much does the exam cost?

If you are self-studying and want to sit the online exam, the Foundation exam fee is US$400 and the Preparation the Execution exams are US$550 each.

If you are sitting the course as part of an accredited training course, the cost of the exam should be included in the course fee. Please check with your training provider at the time of booking your course.
